

September 17, 2010

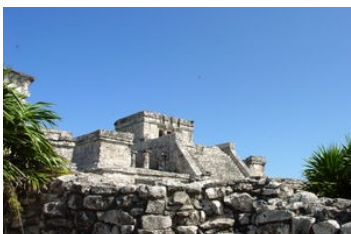

Rachel Wilcox

Spanish Instructor

706.494.5386

rachel@sayholatospanish.com

www.sayholatospanish.com

Say Hola to Spanish!
Say Bonjour au français!

Immersion Excursion to Paris, France
November 20-27, 2010

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Paris, France Immersion Excursion is to provide French language, culture, and history immersion to students, professionals, and local residents of the Columbus and Chattahoochee Valley region

SCOPE OF SERVICES

- Round-trip ground transportation in the USA and France
- Metro/taxi in Paris
- Hotel
- Airfare
- Daily meal allowances
- Entry fees to the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre, and Notre Dame
- Tour guide/chaperone for the duration of the trip
- Customized walking tours, history, and culture discussions
- Daily French language and culture immersion

Hotel

Hotel stay will be arranged at an acceptable 3 star or better location within walking distance of a metro stop in one of the numbered zones within the Paris region.

Number of participants	2010 Price	per diem
16 to 20	$1,890	$236.25
11 to 15	$1,960	$245.00
6 to 10	$2,150	$268.75
2 to 5	$2,960	$370.00
dates	11/20-11/27
days	8

Dining

Foreign foods from a variety of restaurants will be included in the dining plan. We will limit ourselves to one American chain restaurant visit per trip. Meal allowance monies will be collected in advance and divvied out at each meal time. Additional monies are the participant's to keep.

Transportation

All ground transportation, airport transfers, excursions, and field trips that are included in your itinerary will be included in the quoted trip price. No additional side travel will be allowed as the group should plan to enter, visit, and exit the country together.

Translation/Interpretation Assistance

French immersion will be a main objective of each day's itinerary. Rachel Wilcox will serve as French/English interpreter providing interpretation and translation for the group throughout their flights and stay Paris, France. All participants should prepare to listen to, to speak, and to read as much French as possible for themselves throughout the Immersion Excursion.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

Any travelers insurance and medical insurance will be the responsibility of each individual participant. Please check with your provider to ensure that your policy will work outside the United States.

Rachel Wilcox and the Say Hola to Spanish program will not be held responsible for any action taken by any participant at any time. This proposal is extended to groups of children of age 15 or greater or adults only, who will be held responsible for their own actions and will not hold liable Rachel Wilcox or any of her assigns for any action or cause.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY and DEPOSIT

All confirmed participants will be required to submit a signed Waiver of Liability, Emergency Contacts, Medical Authorization, and Parental Consent (if under age 18) forms and a non-refundable deposit of $1,000 by October 1, 2010.

BENEFITS

When you decide to join us on an Immersion Excursion for a foreign language and cultural experience, you will come away with lasting memories, knowledge, and friendships to last a lifetime. You just never know how far this journey may take you.